

QUEBEC MY HUNTING AND FISHING ACCOUNT CHECKLIST

Quebec Starting Point

Quebec uses My Hunting and Fishing Account for online fishing licence purchases.

Official account platform:

Official fishing licence page:

Step 1: Sign In Or Create The Right Account

- Sign in to My Hunting and Fishing Account with the email used for purchase.

- If this is the first online visit, use the account creation path.
- If you have a hunter or trapper certificate, link it to the account if useful.
- If you do not have a certificate, Quebec assigns a customer file number.

Step 2: Find Or Reprint The Licence

- Open active licences or order history.

- Download or print the licence purchased online.
- Quebec says a licence purchased through My Hunting and Fishing Account is electronically signed.
- If the licence was lost, damaged, or unusable, use the replacement or download path instead of starting blindly.

Step 3: Check Printed Document Requirements

- Atlantic salmon transportation coupons must be printed.

- Burbot identification tags must be printed.
- If your trip includes salmon or burbot, do not rely only on a phone copy until the printing requirement is settled.

Step 4: What To Carry

- Fishing licence or downloaded online licence.

- Government-issued photo ID.
- Printed coupons or tags when required.
- Any ZEC, outfitter, salmon river, or managed-area permission that applies.

Step 5: Before Fishing

- Confirm resident or non-resident class.

- Confirm whether the trip involves Atlantic salmon.
- Confirm zone, waterbody, season, catch limit, and local managed-area access.
- Confirm whether someone else can legally fish under your licence before assuming family sharing applies.

Subject: Quebec fishing licence access problem

Hello,

I bought or need to access a Quebec fishing licence but cannot find the licence now.

The account may be tied to this email: [email]. The purchase date was about [date].

Could you help me download, print, or replace the licence before my trip?

Thank you,
